

Bryan Trains Political Guns Upon Palmer

"Peerless One" to Address Opposition Meeting in Washington on Jan. 8; in Fight With "Both Feet"

Tumulty Is Against Him

Nebraskan's Friends Say He Stands a Good Chance to Carry the Empire State

William J. Bryan, three times Presidential candidate of the Democratic party and three times defeated, is sending orders along the lines to his lieutenants in a way to make the heads of the McAdoo and Palmer men swim.

Colonel Bryan has made it plain to his friends both East and West that Attorney General Palmer is the man to beat, and the Bryan men who are "springing out of the grass" are training their guns on Mr. Palmer.

The friends of Mr. Bryan have discovered that Joseph P. Tumulty, the President's secretary, is working for the Attorney General, and that the Jackson dinner in Washington on January 8 is to be a Palmer rally. In order to make it so, the friends of Colonel Bryan said yesterday that former Secretary McAdoo has decided to stay away from the dinner. Mr. Tumulty, it is charged, has commandeered the greater portion of the dinner tickets in the interest of Mr. Palmer, leaving the Bryan men "outside the breakfast."

Another Jackson Dinner

As a counter offensive the Bryan men yesterday made plans for another Jackson dinner in Washington on the same night, with Mr. Bryan as the speaker. Harry W. Walker, Bryan's old lieutenant in New York, returned yesterday from a trip upstate, and when asked what he had discovered, said:

"I found that the Brady traction and lighting interests, which practically dominate the Democratic state machine, are busy all over the state in the interests of Attorney General Palmer. They are openly working for him, apparently having been tipped off from Washington that he is the one best bet."

"The western part of the state is favorably impressed with the candidacy of James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany. Unless the Murphy machine gets a strategic hold on the delegation from this state, Judge Gerard will have many of the delegates."

County Clerk William F. Schneider, who took a leading part in beating the Tammany ticket last November, said that with a clean cut issue between Charles F. Murphy and William J. Bryan in the primaries, the Bryan men would capture half the delegates in this city and more than half of those from up state.

Frank H. Warder, secretary of the Bryan League, said: "There are so many of Colonel Bryan's friends going to Washington on January 8 to witness the great come-back of the Commoner that but a small percentage of them will be able to secure tickets to the banquet to be held by the national committee in honor of Jackson's birthday."

Opposition Banquet

"Hence arrangements are being made to have an additional banquet which will be addressed by Colonel Bryan before he speaks at the Jackson dinner. There is a precedent for this. At the Jackson banquet in 1912 the Wilson League held a separate banquet which was addressed by the then Governor Wilson.

"The national committeeman from the District of Columbia, a friend of Mr. Tumulty, is in charge of the Jackson dinner. If arrangements can be made for the additional banquet, Colonel Charles H. Ingersoll, Bryan's New Jersey friend, will be asked to preside, and County Clerk Schneider will be one of the speakers. Efforts are being made to secure the ballroom of the Willard Hotel for the banquet, and if this is not available it is probable The Hut, which was built for Billy Sunday, will be secured. Colonel Ingersoll will take a large delegation to Washington, and so will Martin Jennings Caton, a prominent Pittsburgh millionaire. Both Colonel Ingersoll and Mr. Caton are enthusiastic admirers of the Nebraskan and are eager to witness the greatest 'come back' in political history. Martin Lamaske, the Democratic leader of Boston, also is hustling to take a large delegation to Washington."

Anti-Saloon Backing

Mr. Warder also stated that hundreds of letters and telegrams were being received from all over the country urging that the "Peerless One" be drafted as the leader in the next Presidential race and pledging support to the league and advocating meetings throughout the country.

William H. Anderson, of the Anti-Saloon League, uttered a veiled threat that the prohibitionists will swing to Bryan.

Morrow Boom Launched

Friends of Kentucky Governor Seek Vice-Presidency for Him

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 31.—Republican leaders in Kentucky are grooming Governor Edwin P. Morrow as a Vice-Presidential candidate, according to announcement here to-day.

A. T. Hert, national committeeman from Kentucky, is said to be one of the leaders in the movement, which was given impetus at a meeting of party workers in Louisville yesterday.

According to announcement, the groundwork for the Morrow boom is being laid early in order that his name may be presented to the various state conventions and primaries next year.

Governor Morrow was elected in November by a majority of approximately 40,000.

announcement that the President will not be a candidate is satisfactory to Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer. The Palmer machine is working very smoothly, despite failure of the President to remove himself from the race. He is the only candidate in the Cabinet, so far as any substantial political following is concerned, and therefore the only candidate with any amount of national patronage.

In addition to having a large amount of patronage, which politicians say Mr. Palmer has been using very judiciously in getting Palmer-for-President men put in important positions in virtually every state, Mr. Palmer seems to have considerably the best of it in Democratic National Committee headquarters here.

Friends of William G. McAdoo are particularly concerned over what they regard as the favoritism being displayed by the National Committee. Vice-President Marshall was recently appealed to by some prominent backers of Mr. McAdoo to join them in a protest to Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the National Committee. The Vice-President, it is learned, promised to take it up.

Cummings Denies Favoritism

Mr. Cummings to-day denied that Vice-President Marshall had offered to submit any "documentary proof," as had been alleged. He also denied that Bernard M. Baruch and Thomas M. Chabourne had served any notice on the committee with regard to the alleged discrimination in favor of Palmer, and that friends of Champ Clark were finding fault on the same point.

"It's all bunk," Mr. Cummings said. "As a matter of fact, friends of almost every candidate in the Democratic party except Mr. Palmer have been irritated by what they believe to be partiality for Mr. Palmer in the National Committee headquarters."

A strong supporter of Vice-President Marshall said to-night he believed this partiality was due to the influence of Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson. Mr. Tumulty is very strong for Palmer, and in the opinion of this Marshall adherent Democratic committee headquarters takes its cue from the White House.

Friends of Mr. McAdoo pointed out to-night that recently when Mr. Baruch, regarded virtually as the leader in the McAdoo for President movement, saw the President some days ago, no intimation of this visit, which would have been a good piece of news, reached the press through Mr. Tumulty. It came out in another way. Democratic leaders in accusing Tumulty of using the White House prestige in favor of the candidate for the nomination, say they are surprised that he should take such action in advance of any statement from the President as to whether Mr. Wilson himself will be a candidate. The same leaders add that they do not consider there is any disloyalty in this. They believe that if Mr. Wilson intended to be a candidate Tumulty would be loyally doing everything possible to make his nomination easier—were that necessary.

White House Gives Out

Friends of one of the other candidates made a quiet investigation of the alleged Palmer activities of the national committee headquarters.

"We did not find anything," he said, "to convince us that Chairman Homer S. Cummings had anything to do with the discrimination being worked in behalf of Mr. Palmer. Our investigation showed it was the work mostly of other individuals around the headquarters. We found that they were taking their cue, apparently, from the White House, regarding Tumulty as the spokesman for President Wilson."

This activity on the part of Tumulty in behalf of Palmer is rather surprising to some of the Democratic politicians in view of their belief that if Mr. Wilson could select his successor he would prefer Secretary of War Newton D. Baker. The authority for the statement that Mr. Wilson would prefer Mr. Baker is said by some of the politicians to be Colonel House. The Colonel, it is said, did not share the President's belief in the availability of Mr. Baker, but merely mentioned that Mr. Baker was the President's choice.
